Hygiene Engaged

Are you and your Hygiene Team operating on autopilot, feeling unengaged and uninspired with daily clinical practice? Many of us fear the dreaded two words that have come to be synonymous with clinical dental hygiene practice; burn out. Burn out is a real threat to our careers if we don’t take steps to avoid it. It is not however, inevitable, and you don’t have to leave clinical practice to breathe fresh life back into your career.

If all you have tried just isn’t enough to ignite your passion for hygiene again, join Andrea for some easy ways to get motivated and keep your clinical career going strong!

SKILL GAINS

- Learn proven, immediately doable techniques that combat career burn out and boredom.

- Hone in on your strengths and passions to find your perfect clinical hygiene career niche.

- Recognize ways to invest in your patient’s oral health and remain energized to get them healthy.

Hygiene Empowered

It is a well-known fact that in the United States, our healthcare system is generally focused on the treatment of disease, rather than the prevention of it. In our system of treatment focused healthcare delivery, Dental Hygienists, as disease prevention experts, stand out from the crowd. With the prevalence of oral diseases and their systemic ramifications on the rise, hygienists will be called on to champion prevention in their practices.

In this course, Andrea will show hygienists and the team members they work with how to implement practical, proven measures that save patients time, money, and the pain of dental disease.

SKILL GAINS

- Learn how to implement the latest in non-invasive screening and risk assessment tools for dental disease.

- Discover ways to lead your practice in implementing preventative measures.

- Learn to deliver low cost preventative measures that improve patient’s oral and overall health, at the same time, increase practice revenue.
